AMERICAN FUNERAL RECORD

A READY REFERENCE DAY BOOK FOR UNDERTAKERS

A few words of Explanation to the man who enters up the order for Funeral Arrangements:

This Record Book will be of great assistance to your profession in recording funerals and arrangements for same, correctly, intelligently and completely. You will find it prudent to enter all items that are given therein, as in doing this you will not only enhance the prestige of the profession, but also create admiration and confidence of your patrons in your work. Record items of a deceased are looked for at the Undertakers' quite frequently, and the more exact the record is kept with data that have bearing on the funeral, the better will be the results.

In entering up your work, observe the following:

Do not hesitate to get and fill in all possible information to make the biographical record of the deceased complete. Such items as date of birth, occupation of the deceased, single or married, religion and age, are matters of biographical record and should be entered up most exactly and correctly in every case.

The two clauses, "Order given by," and "How secured," are important. They will assist you very materially in overcoming the embarrassment incident to asking security for an account. It is also of importance to have party who orders the funeral sign in the space provided for at bottom of sheet.

The clause "Cause of Death" is very essential for several reasons: 1, to know whether the subject died of a contagious disease; 2, to adopt correct measures for embalming; 3, to ascertain necessity of disinfection, etc.

The pleasing and correct rotation, observed in the bill of items to be charged, is an essential and most practical feature of the chart, and this part of the record alone is worth the price of the book. Fill out such items as you were called upon to furnish, and leave the others blank. Read all items carefully when you render bill, in order to be sure that you have not omitted any charge. The extra lines on bill of items are for such charges as the printed items may not provide.

The Ledger part on bottom of each page will enable you to keep account of your entire funeral work in this book, though you may prefer to transfer the total of the bill as one item into your regular Ledger.

This Funeral Record has been compiled after close study into the proper requirements of your profession. It is the result of years of experience, and, if you will carefully enter up the spaces provided in this book, you will find that every item that might possibly be needed for future reference, is recorded.

FUNERAL ETHICS

Details of funeral work may vary slightly in different communities, but the following rules of FUNERAL ETIQUETTE apply generally. While the Funeral Directors are conversant with matters pertaining to well conducted funerals, the suggestions set forth herein cannot fail to prove of interest and value and perhaps reveal points worthy of close observance.

In all things use good judgment and cool deliberation in performing your work, and remember that you are not called upon to console the bereaved, but to take care of the remains, and do that in the most competent and least ostentatious way.

Be courteous and polite under any and all circumstances, however trying. Refrain from alluding to your work as a "job"; it is not only bad form, but is also apt to offend your patrons. Term it a "call", a "funeral", or "an order".

Perform your work in a quiet and considerate manner and make as few requests of the family as possible. Talk in an undertone while at the funeral house.

When selling the Casket and Furnishings, ascertain what means there are, and how much money is calculated to be expended for the funeral, then recommend the highest class of goods within the amount.

Should you be confronted with the argument that lower prices than yours are quoted or promised by associations or parties who solicit funerals on a life subscription plan, you may well ask the customer if he or she had investigated the promoters financial responsibility. If it becomes absolutely necessary, meet the price, rather than lose the business. But you yourself had better investigate the contracts of those promoters to discover the weaknesses and flaws in them, then point them out honestly to your patrons. (See resolutions adopted in October, 1937, by the "Disabled Veterans of the World War, St. Louis Chapter No. 1.")

If offered in security an insurance policy of a Company you are not familiar with, you can make inquiry at the "Better Business Bureau" or at the insurance commissioner's office of your state.

Take correct note of all arrangements for the funeral. Be sure that you have a clear understanding with your customer on all points pertaining to the funeral arrangement, and then note same into your Funeral Record Book. Also be careful that you have the correct spelling of name of the deceased for the newspapers, etc. A memorandum sheet of the "AMERICAN" Funeral Record will assist you greatly in these functions.

Further take note carefully of the biographical items, such as religion, occupation, age, etc., and insert them in the spaces provided for in this Record Book. Items of record of a deceased are often inquired for at the Undertaker's, and by keeping complete record, your patrons will see for themselves that you are doing your work on up-to-date principles, and that a funeral is handled by you better than a mere "putting the body under ground". Death Certificate, memorandum sheet on which the order was taken, newspaper clippings, and notations should be placed in an envelope and filed for possible future reference.

At the Funeral the Funeral Director should dress in a dark, preferably black suit, and should wear a black necktie; but in summer he may wear an all white suit if he prefers.

Use Badge consisting of delicate flowers or smilax with lavender or gray ribbon on the door, instead of the antiquated crepe.

Avoid all delay, hitch, or any misunderstanding among your helpers. Instruct bearers, drivers and others beforehand.

In some cases use Matting, and possibly a Tent, at the cemetery to keep off rain or intense sunlight. The bereaved will often appreciate such suggestion. Lining with evergreen helps very materially to make a grave seem less distressing during interment.

Paint or stain the Outside Box or Shipping Case.

At the funeral services the sermon precedes the speeches of lodge members, whose speeches are usually made at the grave. If societies attend in a body the principal services are held at the grave; Roman Catholic always at the church. Where both the WHITE SHRINE and the EASTERN STAR are represented, the WHITE SHRINE functions first, because the Commitment in the EASTERN STAR ceremony really concludes the service.

Order of funeral cortege is best arranged as follows: Minister's Automobile, Automobile with Pallbearers, Hearse, Chief mourners Automobile and automobiles of friends. If Lodge members conduct the rites, the Lodge members lead the procession.

At military funerals place Flag on Casket with the field (stars) over left side of casket (indicating position over the heart). Poppies may be placed on the Flag but no other flowers. In procession in which flags are carried, the NATIONAL FLAG must always be carried to the right of all other flags, and in change of formation it must never be crossed with other flags.

Where the deceased is buried without any religious service, or where the mourners are unable to engage the services of a clergyman, the Undertaker may officiate and offer the prayer. Stillborns are buried by the undertaker alone; it is unusual that any of the family attend the interment.

If remains are to be shipped, depart from the house, the funeral parlor or the church in time to reach the depot at least one hour before train time.

Where bodies are neither embalmed nor put on ice, keep in coolest place possible. Perhaps best is between two open windows, with the shades drawn down as far as needed; use a bleacher frequently over face and hands of the deceased. Where death resulted from a contagious disease, follow State regulations.

While the chief mourners are turning from the grave and the friends are still there, it is fitting that the Funeral Director, in behalf of the family, say a few words to their friends, expressing appreciation for their floral offerings and for their sympathy.

Let the entire funeral be conducted in a dignified and well-ordered manner, and you will have conferred a lasting favor upon those who required the need of your service. This is the best method of advertising which an Undertaker can employ, and is the stepping stone for sure success.

Old Circus Performer Is Suicide

LOS GATOS, June 18.—Albert D. North, 82, one-time actor and circus performer, today committed suicide at his home at 103 Clelland Ave., Los Gatos.

North slashed his wrists and shot himself through the temple with a .38 caliber pistol.

In a suicide note addressed to a neighbor, Clark Boulware, 109 Clelland Ave., North said he was taking his life because he was suffering from chronic asthma. "I do not want to go through the rest of my life as my brother did." The note said.

In the note, North instructed Boulware to notify a nephew, Ted Fletcher of Sacramento. Ironically, Fletcher this morning came to Los Gatos to take North to Santa Cruz for a day at the beach.

LIVED ALONE

North lived alone. Several years ago he had made arrangements for burial with Melvin Mortuary. The body was taken there this morning. Services are pending.

Coroner Tom Kilmartin's office was called into the case by Los Gatos police. Boulware, upon receiving the suicide note when he went to his mail box today, called the Los Gatos police.

Pistol Shot Brings Death to A. D. North, Spanish War Vet

Albert Delmar North, 83, Spanish-American War veteran, and former actor with a traveling troupe, died at his home, 103 Cleland avenue, last Friday morning of self-inflicted gunshot wounds.

Graveside services were held under direction of the Melvin Funeral Chapel Saturday at 3 p.m. at the Los Gatos Cemetery, with the Rev. David Todd Gillmor officiating.

His niece, Mrs. Dorothy Fletcher of Sacramento, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Harriet North of San Francisco, former owner of the Black Cat Tea Room, were among those from out of town for the services.

North in a note to his next door neighbor, Clarke Boulware, says he was despondent over chronic asthma. The letter was received about 9:30 a.m. and Boulware called Chief of Police R. M. Phillips who discovered the body.

Ted Fletcher, of Sacramento, grand-nephew of the deceased, who was in town visiting friends, arrived but a moment before.

Investigation revealed that the former actor, after slashing his wrists, had held a .32-calibre pistol in his left hand, but after four cartridges had failed to detonate owing to old ammunition, he fired the .38 calibre pistol in his right hand which caused death instantly. Fire Chief Jack Sullivan, also a neighbor, heard the fatal shot at 8:40 a.m.

North, who lived in Los Gatos since 1929, was well known here, and was a whist fan, attending numerous parties. He also enjoyed the theater, and frequently saw three movies in one day, B.D. (before double-features).

During the Spanish-American War he served in Cuba, and later joined "The Roundup", a traveling show which toured the United States.

A native of St. Paul, Minn., the deceased was the brother of Mrs. Jean Ward of Chicago, the late Fred C. North and the late Mrs. Evelyn West.

Suicide Uses Knife, Guns To Take Life

LOS GATOS, June 18.—After slashing his left wrist, Albert Delmar North, 83, 103 Cleland Ave., Los Gatos, this morning took a pistol in each hand and fired a shot into his right temple. His nephew, Ted Fletcher, Sacramento, was but a few miles away and had planned to take North to Santa Cruz for a day's outing.

In a note addressed to Clarke Boulware, a next-door neighbor, North, a Spanish-American War veteran, revealed he was despondent over chronic asthma. The letter was received about 9:30 a. m., and Boulware called Police Chief R. N. Phillips, who found the body. Fletcher had arrived but a moment before.

Investigation revealed that the former vaudeville actor and circus performer had held a .32-caliber pistol in his left hand, but old ammunition in it failed to detonate. The .38 pistol in his other hand fired, causing instant death. Fire Chief Jack Sullivan, also a neighbor, heard the fatal shot at 8:40 a. m.

North had lived in Los Gatos since 1929, and was well known throughout the community. He attended practically all the whist parties held in and around the area. His wife died before the war.

Funeral services will be held at Melvin Mortuary, Saturday, at 3 p. m., with the Rev. David Todd Gillmor officiating. Interment will follow at Los Gatos Cemetery, where his wife is buried.

Pistol Shot Brings Death to A. D. North, Spanish War Vet

Albert Delmar North, 83, Spanish-American War veteran, and former actor with a traveling troupe, died at his home, 103 Cleland avenue, last Friday morning of self-inflicted gunshot wounds.

Graveside services were held under direction of the Melvin Funeral Chapel Saturday at 3 p.m. at the Los Gatos Cemetery, with the Rev. David Todd Gillmor officiating.

His niece, Mrs. Dorothy Fletcher of Sacramento, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Harriet North of San Francisco, former owner of the Black Cat Tea Room, were among those from out of town for the services.

North in a note to his next door neighbor, Clarke Boulware, says he was despondent over chronic asthma. The letter was received about 9:30 a.m. and Boulware called Chief of Police R. M. Phillips who discovered the body.

Ted Fletcher, of Sacramento, grand-nephew of the deceased, who was in town visiting friends, arrived but a moment before.

Investigation revealed that the former actor, after slashing his wrists, had held a .32-calibre pistol in his left hand, but after four cartridges had failed to detonate owing to old ammunition, he fired the .38 calibre pistol in his right hand which caused death instantly. Fire Chief Jack Sullivan, also a neighbor, heard the fatal shot at 8:40 a.m.

North, who lived in Los Gatos since 1929, was well known here, and was a whist fan, attending numerous parties. He also enjoyed the theater, and frequently saw three movies in one day, B.D. (before double-features).

During the Spanish-American War he served in Cuba, and later joined "The Roundup", a traveling show which toured the United States.

A native of St. Paul, Minn., the deceased was the brother of Mrs. Jean Ward of Chicago, the late Fred C. North and the late Mrs. Evelyn West.

Chemeketa Park Woman Killed When Auto Rolls Down Incline

Mrs. Elener Sarah Haines, 51, was killed accidentally last Friday in front of her home on Cherokee trail, Chemeketa Park, when her automobile apparently ran over her, crushing her chest.

The car was parked on a steep hill, and it is believed Mrs. Haines was possibly crushed under the wheels as the car rolled forward some 20 feet to the opposite side of the trail.

The machine was found with its bumper against a post. The emergency brake was off and the car out of gear. The switch was turned on, and the battery dead.

Services were conducted from the Place Funeral Home Monday with Mrs. Geraldine C. Jungbluth, C.S., reader. Mrs. David Todd Gillmor was soloist, and Mrs. Edward Reynolds organist.

Mrs. Haines was the wife of Roland E. Haines, daughter of Mrs. Bell M. Bakewell of Saratoga, and sister of Leonne Williams, Oakland; Clifton C. Bakewell, Chemeketa Park; and Douglas L. Bakewell, Oakland.

Full Military Service For Pfc. Leonard Hoover, Anzio Beach Head Victim in 1944

Pfc. Leonard V. Hoover, who was killed in action on Anzio Beach Head, Italy, January, 1944, will be given full military services at Melvin Mortuary Saturday at 10 a.m. under the auspices of the Los Gatos American Legion Post 158. Interment will be in Los Gatos cemetery. He attended Los Gatos schools and was 20 years old at the time of his death. He had been overseas 18 months and was the twelfth Los Gatos man to give his life for his country.

He enlisted in the California National Guard 159th Infantry in 1940, and was in the 30th Infantry when killed. He was buried in the United States Military cemetery in Nottuno, Italy.

In his last letter home to his parents he stated, "Our Country and Not Ourself" was the motto of his outfit. His mother had sent him a picture of Los Gatos Union High school. He wrote: "Gee, the pictures are swell, and it sure makes a guy lonesome. Mom, there's a picture of the old high school, and I was just telling a kid how many houses to right where we live. Boy, would I like to be there! But that picture of the high school is best. It's got the old Red, White and Blue out in front."

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo D. Hoover of Santa Cruz, and sisters, Mrs. Ella Ireland, Mrs. Lorean Matusek, Mrs. Anita Volpa and Letzel Hoover, all of Los Gatos, and Lela Coons of Walnut Creek.

Los Gatos Legion Commander Joe Sober will preside, Chaplain Rev. David Todd Gillmor will officiate, and Mrs. A. R. Gustalson is organist.

Hoover, who was killed in action on Anzio Beach Head, Italy, January, 1944, will be given full military services at Melvin Mortuary Saturday at 10 a.m. under the auspices of the Los Gatos American Legion Post 158. Interment will be in Los Gatos cemetery. He attended Los Gatos schools and was 20 years old at the time of his death. He had been overseas 18 months and was the twelfth Los Gatos man to give his life for his country.

He enlisted in the California National Guard 159th Infantry in 1940, and was in the 30th Infantry when killed. He was buried in the United States Military cemetery in Nottuno, Italy.

In his last letter home to his parents he stated, "Our Country and Not Ourself" was the motto of his outfit. His mother had sent him a picture of Los Gatos Union High school. He wrote: "Gee, the pictures are swell, and it sure makes a guy lonesome. Mom, there's a picture of the old high school, and I was just telling a kid how many houses to right where we live. Boy, would I like to be there! But that picture of the high school is best. It's got the old Red, White and Blue out in front."

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo D. Hoover of Santa Cruz, and sisters, Mrs. Ella Ireland, Mrs. Lorean Matusek, Mrs. Anita Volpa and Letzel Hoover, all of Los Gatos, and Lela Coons of Walnut Creek.

Mr. Van Lone had been employed in the oil industry and was later affiliated with Rogers Packing Company near Los Gatos.

The services were under the auspices of the Los Gatos Masonic Lodge. Mrs. A. R. Gustafson was at the organ. Cremation was followed by interment of the ashes in the grave of Mr. Van Lone's parents at Los Gatos Cemetery.

GEN. HUTCHESON

NOTED ARMY DIGNITARY PASSES AWAY

Maj. Gen. Grote Hutcheson, USA retired, who personally knew every United States President from Grover Cleveland through Franklin D. Roosevelt and who was military aide to five of them, died last night at 7 o'clock in Saratoga Inn.

Gen. Hutcheson, who was 86, was a West Point classmate of Gen. John J. (Black Jack) Pershing, supreme commander of American forces in World War I. A resident of Saratoga since shortly after his retirement from the Army in July, 1924, Gen. Hutcheson had been alert and active, a tall, distinguished figure, until the past few months. He succumbed to a complication of ailments associated with his age.

BURIAL AT ARLINGTON

The body of the noted general is at the Melvin Mortuary in Los Gatos. Funeral services for Gen. Hutcheson and burial will be in the Arlington National Cemetery in Virginia.

Gen. Hutcheson leaves his widow, Ann, his second wife, whom he married during World War II. He also leaves a nephew, Col. R. A. Hewitt, USA.

A native of Ohio, where he was born on April 1, 1862, Gen. Hutcheson entered the United States Military Academy at West Point as a cadet in 1879. He was graduated from West Point in 1884 and was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Ninth Cavalry.

WAS WITH CAVALRY

For many years, Gen. Hutcheson served with the cavalry in various campaigns against Indians in Arizona and other western states. During the Spanish American War he served as adjutant general of the Puerto Rican campaign. He was with the China Relief Expedition in 1900, served as military service governor of the Philippine Islands in 1901 and 1902, and as judge advocate of the Department of the East in 1903-1904. He was a member of the general staff corps, 1904-1908.

Gen. Hutcheson served on the Mexican border in 1911-12, and in the campaign against the bandit Pancho Villa in 1916 and 1917.

With the outbreak of the first World War, Gen. Hutcheson was

NOTED ARMY DIGNITARY PASSES AWAY

Maj. Gen. Grote Hutcheson, USA retired, who personally knew every United States President from Grover Cleveland through Franklin D. Roosevelt and who was military aide to five of them, died last night at 7 o'clock in Saratoga Inn.

Gen. Hutcheson, who was 86, was a West Point classmate of Gen. John J. (Black Jack) Pershing, supreme commander of American forces in World War I. A resident of Saratoga since shortly after his retirement from the Army in July, 1924, Gen. Hutcheson had been alert and active, a tall, distinguished figure, until the past few months. He succumbed to a complication of ailments associated with his age.

BURIAL AT ARLINGTON

The body of the noted general is at the Melvin Mortuary in Los Gatos. Funeral services for Gen. Hutcheson and burial will be in the Arlington National Cemetery in Virginia.

Gen. Hutcheson leaves his widow, Ann, his second wife, whom he married during World War II. He also leaves a nephew, Col. R. A. Hewitt, USA.

A native of Ohio, where he was born on April 1, 1862, Gen. Hutcheson entered the United States Military Academy at West Point as a cadet in 1879. He was graduated from West Point in 1884 and was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Ninth Cavalry.

WAS WITH CAVALRY

For many years, Gen. Hutcheson served with the cavalry in various campaigns against Indians in Arizona and other western states. During the Spanish American War he served as adjutant general of the Puerto Rican campaign. He was with the China Relief Expedition in 1900, served as military service governor of the Philippine Islands in 1901 and 1902, and as judge advocate of the Department of the East in 1903-1904. He was a member of the general staff corps, 1904-1908.

Gen. Hutcheson served on the Mexican border in 1911-12, and in the campaign against the bandit Pancho Villa in 1916 and 1917.

With the outbreak of the first World War, Gen. Hutcheson was named commander of the Army Port of Embarkation at Newport News and Norfolk, Va. During the war he also commanded the 14th Infantry Division. Gen. Hutcheson's long military service came to an end when he was retired on July 20, 1924, and he shortly thereafter came to Saratoga to reside.

Gen. Hutcheson served in the Army in a day when advances were slow. He received his permanent appointment as captain in 1899, as major in 1911, as lieutenant colonel in 1914 and as colonel in 1916. He was permanently commissioned a brigadier general in 1920 and as a major general in 1924. During World War I, however, he was an acting major general and served with distinction.

Numerous awards were won by General Hutcheson in his long career. These included Distinguished Service Medal of both the Army and Navy, also the second Oak Leaf Cluster, and many campaign decorations.

FAMOUS FRIENDS

Upon moving to Saratoga, General Hutcheson became active in the Saratoga Men's Club, where he had been program chairman continuously. Due to his outstanding contacts with prominent persons of international fame, for years the club offered speakers of great distinction.

For many years, General Hutcheson annually visited Washington, D.C., to visit old friends. He was a keen observer of national and international events.

General Hutcheson's first wife, Rosalie St. George Hutcheson, a Brooklyn girl to whom he was married for 40 years, died at Saratoga in February, 1942, after a year's illness.

In December, 1943, General Hutcheson married at Saratoga the wife who survives him, an old friend of the Hutchesons.

General Hutcheson was a member of the Order of the Dragon, Order of Carabao, the Society of Foreign Wars. He was a director general of the Cathedral Foundation at Washington, D.C., 1925-27. He was an Episcopalian, and a member of the Army and Navy Club of Washington, D.C., and the Union League Club of San Francisco.

HUTCHESON—In Saratoga California, December 14, 1948, Major General Grote Hutcheson, USA, retired, husband of Mrs. Anne P. Hutcheson; uncle of Col. Robert A. Hewitt, USA, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas; Mrs. Walter H. Brown of Shaker Heights, Ohio; and Mrs. Robert B. Hewitt of Kansas City, Mo., a native of Ohio. Aged 86 years.

Friends may call on Friday and Saturday at the Melvin Mortuary, 300 West Main Street at Tait Avenue, Los Gatos. Funeral services will be held in the Arlington National Cemetery, Alexandria, Va., on Tuesday, December 28, 1948. A member of Saratoga Men's Club; Honorary member of the Los Gatos Rotary Club; Order of the Dragon; Order of the Caribo; Society of Foreign Wars, American Legion; Army & Navy Club of Washington, and Union League of San Francisco. Frank E. Doud Found Dead In Aldercroft Cabin

LOS GATOS, March 19.—Body of Frank E. Doud, 60, was found in his Aldercroft Heights cabin "Whispering Pines" shortly before sundown today by Everett Trask of Alma.

Deputy Coroner C. R. Sobers said Doud had been dead almost 48 hours. A post mortem examination will be performed Monday to determine cause of death.

Trask told Deputy Sheriffs Elton Heck and Pat Parkes he was visiting the cabin just to see how Doud was getting along. Doud was found on the floor. The table in the cabin was set and other evidence pointed to the fact that Doud had been preparing to eat his dinner, when he apparently collapsed.

Parkes and Heck said there was no evidence of foul play.

Doud's only known relative is a sister, Mrs. Virginia Sulleon of Berkeley.

Funeral services are pending at the Melvin Mortuary.

New Dam Threat to Old Family Grave; Remains Are Moved

The remains of a two year old girl, buried in a private family cemetery in the mountains near the old Wrights station fifty-seven years ago, were returned to Los Gatos for reburial recently by the Melvin Mortuary.

Water backed up by the retaining dam being constructed by the San Jose Water Works near the junction of Austin and Los Gatos creeks will cover the old R. J. Lindsay home, and with it the site of little Pearl Lindsay's grave.

Pearl was the daughter of R. J. and Laura Lindsay, and a sister of R. George Lindsay. Her remains were placed in the Los Gatos Cemetery to rest beside other members of the family.

New Dam Threat to Old Family Grave; Remains Are Moved

The remains of a two year old girl, buried in a private family cemetery in the mountains near the old Wrights station fifty-seven years ago, were returned to Los Gatos for reburial recently by the Melvin Mortuary.

Water backed up by the retaining dam being constructed by the San Jose Water Works near the junction of Austin and Los Gatos creeks will cover the old R. J. Lindsay home, and with it the site of little Pearl Lindsay's grave.

Pearl was the daughter of R. J. and Laura Lindsay, and a sister of R. George Lindsay. Her remains were placed in the Los Gatos Cemetery to rest beside other members of the family.

LOS GATOS TIMES

Private Funeral Saturday For Beloved Town Doctor Taken Suddenly by Death

Los Gatos people will pay their humble respects to a beloved family physician when they gather at the Presbyterian Church next Friday afternoon, August 26, to honor the memory of Dr. William Ralph Harder.

The memorial service, under the auspices of the church, the Los Gatos Kiwanis Club, Masonic Lodge members, and the local American Legion Post, has been scheduled for 3 p.m. The public is invited.

The decision to conduct the memorial service was made at a special meeting of the Kiwanis board of directors Thursday noon. Town Councilman L. H. Wright, who is aiding with arrangements for the service, said that additional details of a memorial resolution passed by the directors will be made known later.

The highly esteemed Doctor was stricken suddenly with a gall bladder ailment while returning home from a three-day stay in Yosemite with Mrs. Harder and two sons, Ralph and Ronald. The family had gone to Yosemite following a trip to Mexico.

Following the attack, Dr. Harder was taken to a Merced hospital and then to the O'Connor Hospital in San Jose where he underwent an emergency operation. He succumbed early Wednesday morning.

Private funeral services will be conducted from Melvin Mortuary Saturday afternoon with the Rev. Nottley S. Hammack officiating. Friends may pay their respects at the Melvin Chapel today (Friday) and this evening. It is requested that flowers be omitted. Interment will be in the family plot at Los Gatos Cemetery.

In addition to his wife, Carolyn Hughes Harder, and two sons, Ralph, 16, and Ronald, 14, Dr. Harder is survived by his mother, Mrs. Justine Harder and two brothers, Harry and Robert Harder, all of Reedley; and two sisters, Mrs. Gareth Houk of Visalia and Mrs. J. R. Duerksen of India.

Dr. Harder, who had practiced in Los Gatos since coming here in 1933, was a University of California School of Medicine graduate in the class of 1928.

Long active in civic affairs, he was an elder in the Los Gatos Presbyterian Church, member of Los Gatos Post No. 158, American Legion, Los Gatos Kiwanis Club, Los Gatos Masonic Lodge, Chamber of Commerce, Saratoga Mens Club, Commonwealth Club of California, and San Jose Camera Club.

His medical affiliations included membership in Phi Chi, a medical fraternity, the Santa Clara County Medical Society in which organization he had served as vice-president, California Medical Association, American Academy of General Practice, O'Connor Hospital staff, Southern Pacific Hospital staff, Pacific Association of Railway Surgeons, California Academy of Sciences, and American Medical Association.

No Suspicion of Foul Play In Death of Los Gatos Woman

LOS GATOS, Dec. 20.—Circumstances in the death of Mrs Hanna Tatley last Thursday at Lake Tahoe gave no evidence of foul play although a self-styled doctor involved is now in jail on a narcotics charge. This was evident from statements made by several persons both here and in El Dorado County where the death was investigated.

Mrs. Tatley suffered a heart attack while staying at Bijou, Lake Tahoe, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Thelma Tatley, also of Los Gatos. She was treated by William F. Chappell who represented himself as Dr. William Weslie and who admitted having administered one-eighth grade of morphine, 10 grains of aspirin and 100,000 cc of duramicin to Mrs. Tatley.

El Dorado County Sheriff Rowland Morris ordered no further investigation of the death and there were no complications in removing the body to Los Gatos. Miss Tatley, at her home here tonight, expressed belief that Chappell had done all that was possible to treat her mother. Funeral services were conducted yesterday morning in Melvin Mortuary and no autopsy has been ordered.

Chappell, however, refused to sign a death certificate and was found to have no medical degree of any sort. Also arrested was Gladys Rau, 48, Chappell's common-law wife, who is being held on the same narcotics charge. Chappell had a makeshift medical case containing several drugs and is said to have been practicing medicine for several months in the resort.

Veteran Los Gatos Newsman Claimed By Death This Morning

Hyacinth "Hycie" Forde, for 20 years business manager of the Los Gatos Mail-News, died at a local rest home this morning. He was identified frequently as "The man in the black hat" or "The man who looks like the Rev. David Todd Gillmor."

"Hycie" Forde

He was one of the oldest circulation men on the Pacific Coast and his life in newspaper work was in two centuries. Hundreds of newsboys who later graduated into all walks of life remembered the white-haired circulation manager and their friendship was in constant evidence by the number of men who looked him up in later years.

It was a frequent occasion at the Mail-News office for grown men, some of them driving Cadillac cars, others poorly dressed, coming in with a "You don't remember me." If he didn't, he soon did and talk of old days in San Francisco, Oakland, and San Jose followed.

As a boy selling newspapers he found it best to hide his first name and he adopted Hy or Hycie. Frequently he was forced into fights over his name. Always outweighed he learned to punch for the mouth. Even winners will stop to look for a chipped tooth.

Not long ago he met a man who said, "You don't remember me." Forde admitted that he didn't and the man smiled, drew open his upper lip and pointed to a broken tooth.

His preference for dark clothes was caused by years in the composing room and press rooms where ink on equipment has a habit of jumping.

Forde and Willie Howard, now head of the Scripps-Howard newspaper chain, started together in circulation on the original San Francisco News. At this time Howard, later to marry Scripps' daughter, acquired a police badge, good for passing police and fire lines. He cherished it throughout his circulation days and wore it on his vest while washing office windows.

Forde's knowledge of newspapers and their inner workings became immense during his years in San Francisco. In those days newspapers were bought and sold on a subscription basis—five dollars per subscriber. He learned that when the management sent down an order to run a premium subscription drive the paper was probably going on the block.

When he became circulation manager of the San Jose Evening News in the early 1920's for the late Hiland L. Baggerly, Forde became a valuable news source for Baggerly's unsigned political column "The Man on the Street." He came to Los Gatos in 1929 when Baggerly purchased the Mail-News from Andrew Falch.

Authors of early San Francisco days frequently consulted Forde for first hand information on the development and color of the city's history and his hand was evidenced in their work. He saw the life and death of many San Francisco newspapers. During the months following the earthquake and fire of 1906 he labored with his profession under the difficulty of publishing out of the Oakland Tribune office in Oakland.

Hycie Forde was of the old school. Getting the paper out was the main thing. Press troubles never sent him home, even in the year 1949 when he saw publication day run into dawn of the next day. It can be said that he died on the job—he worked last Saturday.

1949, Mr. Hyacinth Forde, foster of Miss Mary Steele of Los Gatos; of the late Maude Forde; uncl Casamir Forde of Cupertino, Mrs. som French of Lomita Park, Mrs. E Van Zant of Hayward and Mrs. Louise Strachan of San Francisc native of San Francisco, aged 72

Friends are invited to attend th neral today, Saturday, at 8:30 a.m. a Melvin Mortuary, 300 W. Main St. at Ave., Los Gatos, thence to St. M Catholic Church on Bean Ave., Los G where a requiem low mass will be brated for the repose of his soul, mencing at 9 o'clock. Interment, Gatos Cemetery.

Funeral Services For Hycie Forde Tomorrow Morning

Hyacinth Forde, 72, business manager of the Los Gatos Mail-News for the past 20 years, died at Los Gatos Hospital early this morning following a short illness.

Funeral services will be at 8:30 a. m. tomorrow at Melvin Chapel, 300 W. Main street, followed by requiem low mass at 9 a. m. at St. Mary's Catholic church. The Rev. Lester Ehrmann will officiate. Interment will be at Los Gatos Cemetery. Rosary will be recited at Melvin Chapel at 8 p. m. Friday.

He was one of the oldest circulation managers on the Pacific coast, both in age and point of service. His positions, held in San Francisco before and after the turn of the century, included the circulation managership of the "San Francisco News."

During the 1920's he was circulation manager of the "San Jose Evening News."

Mr. Forde was a resident of Los Gatos for the past 25 years and was the husband of the late Maude Forde, who died in 1940, and was the foster father of Miss Mary Steele.

He was the uncle of Casimir Forde, Cupertino; Mrs. Blossom French, Lomita Park; Mrs. Evelyn Van Zant, Hayward; and Mrs. Mary Louise Stachan, San Francisco. Stanley Mills

Pallbearers will be Charles Sayler, Lee Garrett, John Baggerly, Peter Barcne and Al Zopff.

Death Signs '30' To Life Of H. Forde

Final Rites Today In Los Gatos For Veteran Newspaperman

LOS GATOS, Dec. 23.—Finish to a life-time newspaper career was written early this morning with the death of Hyacinth Forde, 72, in a rest home here. A resident of Los Gatos for 25 years, he had been in poor health for several years. He was the husband of the late Maude Forde who died in 1940.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 8:30 a.m. from Melvin Mortuary. Requiem low mass will be celebrated in St. Mary's Catholic Church at 9 a.m. Interment will be in Los Gatos Cemetery. The Rev. Father Lester J. Ehrman will officiate.

Pallbearers will be John Baggerly, Charles Sayler, Peter Barone, Stanley Mills, Al P. Zopff and Lee Garrett.

Surviving him are a foster daughter, Mary Steele, Los Gatos; a nephew, Casamir Forde, Cupertino, and three nieces, Mrs. Blossom French, Lomita Park; Mrs. Evelyn Van Zant, Hayward, and Mrs. Mary Louise Strachan, San Francisco.

For 20 years business manager of the Los Gatos Mail News, "Hycie" Forde's experience ran well back into the last century, before the linotype had displaced the hand compositor. His earliest work was as "printer's devil" and compositor. Later he did circulation work on San Francisco newspapers.

In the early days of E. W. Scripps' San Francisco News, Forde worked in circulation with Willie Howard who was later to become head of the Scripps-Howard chain. That was when desks were improvised from packing cases and newsboys selling the new publication did daily battle on street corners with youths selling older, established papers.

Forde worked on many other San Francisco papers and witnessed the rise and fall of numerous publications. When the late Hiland L. Baggerly left San Francisco in 1916 to take over the San Jose News, Forde came with him to assume duties as circulation manager. He came to Los Gatos when Baggerly bought the Los Gatos Mail News in 1927 and became its business manager.

Since then he had become a familiar figure here in town. Wearing the inevitable black hat, he suggested a prototype of the "Man on the Street," central figure of Baggerly's widely-read political column. Actually he served as a valuable news source for the column.

Although he had been in poor health, Forde kept up his work until a few days before death signed "30" to his career.

Hyacinth "Hycie" Forde, for 20 years business manager of the Los Gatos Mail-News, died at a local rest home this morning. He was identified frequently as "The man in the black hat" or "The man who looks like the Rev. David Todd Gillmor."

He was one of the oldest circulation men on the Pacific Coast and his life in newspaper work was in two centuries. Hundreds of newsboys who later graduated into all walks of life remembered the white-haired circulation manager and their friendship was in constant evidence by the number of men who looked him up in later years.

"Hycie" Forde

It was a frequent occasion at the Mail-News office for grown men, some of them driving Cadillac cars, others poorly dressed, coming in with a "You don't remember me." If he didn't, he soon did and talk of old days in San Francisco, Oakland, and San Jose followed.

As a boy selling newspapers he found it best to hide his first name and he adopted Hy or Hycie. Frequently he was forced into fights over his name. Always outweighed he learned to punch for the mouth. Even winners will stop to look for a chipped tooth.

Not long ago he met a man who said, "You don't remember me." Forde admitted that he didn't and the man smiled, drew open his upper lip and pointed to a broken tooth.

His preference for dark clothes was caused by years in the composing room and press rooms where ink on equipment has a habit of jumping.

Forde and Willie Howard, now head of the Scripps-Howard newspaper chain, started together in circulation on the original San Francisco News. At this time Howard, later to marry Scripps' daughter, acquired a police badge, good for passing police and fire lines. He cherished it throughout his circulation days and wore it on his vest while washing office windows.

Forde's knowledge of newspapers and their inner workings became immense during his years in San Francisco. In those days newspapers were bought and sold on a subscription basis—five dollars per subscriber. He learned that when the management sent down an order to run a premium subscription drive the paper was probably going on the block.

When he became circulation manager of the San Jose Evening News in the early 1920's for the late Hiland L. Baggerly, Forde became a valuable news source for Baggerly's unsigned political column "The Man on the Street." He came to Los Gatos in 1929 when Baggerly purchased the Mail-News from Andrew Falch.

Authors of early San Francisco days frequently consulted Forde for first hand information on the development and color of the city's history and his hand was evidenced in their work. He saw the life and death of many San Francisco newspapers. During the months following the earthquake and fire of 1906 he labored with his profession under the difficulty of publishing out of the Oakland Tribune office in Oakland.

Hycie Forde was of the old school. Getting the paper out was the main thing. Press troubles never sent him home, even in the year 1949 when he saw publication day run into dawn of the next day. It can be said that he died on the job—he worked last Saturday.

Funeral Services For Hycie Forde Tomorrow Morning

Hyacinth Forde, 72, business manager of the Los Gatos Mail-News for the past 20 years, died at Los Gatos Hospital early this morning following a short illness.

Funeral services will be at 8:30 a. m. tomorrow at Melvin Chapel, 300 W. Main street, followed by requiem low mass at 9 a. m. at St. Mary's Catholic church. The Rev. Lester Ehrmann will officiate. Interment will be at Los Gatos Cemetery. Rosary will be recited at Melvin Chapel at 8 p. m. Friday.

He was one of the oldest circulation managers on the Pacific coast, both in age and point of service. His positions, held in San Francisco before and after the turn of the century, included the circulation managership of the "San Francisco News."

During the 1920's he was circulation manager of the "San Jose Evening News."

Mr. Forde was a resident of Los Gatos for the past 25 years and was the husband of the late Maude Forde, who died in 1940, and was the foster father of Miss Mary Steele.

He was the uncle of Casimir Forde, Cupertino; Mrs. Blossom French, Lomita Park; Mrs. Evelyn Van Zant, Hayward; and Mrs. Mary Louise Stachan, San Francisco. Stanley Mills

Pallbearers will be Charles Sayler, Lee Garrett, John Baggerly, Peter Barcne and Al Zopff.

Death Signs '30' To Life Of H. Forde

Final Rites Today In Los Gatos For Veteran Newspaperman

LOS GATOS, Dec. 23.—Finish to a life-time newspaper career was written early this morning with the death of Hyacinth Forde, 72, in a rest home here. A resident of Los Gatos for 25 years, he had been in poor health for several years. He was the husband of the late Maude Forde who died in 1940.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 8:30 a.m. from Melvin Mortuary. Requiem low mass will be celebrated in St. Mary's Catholic Church at 9 a.m. Interment will be in Los Gatos Cemetery. The Rev. Father Lester J. Ehrman will officiate.

Pallbearers will be John Baggerly, Charles Sayler, Peter Barone, Stanley Mills, Al P. Zopff and Lee Garrett.

Surviving him are a foster daughter, Mary Steele, Los Gatos; a nephew, Casamir Forde, Cupertino, and three nieces, Mrs. Blossom French, Lomita Park; Mrs. Evelyn Van Zant, Hayward, and Mrs. Mary Louise Strachan, San Francisco.

For 20 years business manager of the Los Gatos Mail News, "Hycie" Forde's experience ran well back into the last century, before the linotype had displaced the hand compositor. His earliest work was as "printer's devil" and compositor. Later he did circulation work on San Francisco newspapers.

In the early days of E. W. Scripps' San Francisco News, Forde worked in circulation with Willie Howard who was later to become head of the Scripps-Howard chain. That was when desks were improvised from packing cases and newsboys selling the new publication did daily battle on street corners with youths selling older, established papers.

Forde worked on many other San Francisco papers and witnessed the rise and fall of numerous publications. When the late Hiland L. Baggerly left San Francisco in 1916 to take over the San Jose News, Forde came with him to assume duties as circulation manager. He came to Los Gatos when Baggerly bought the Los Gatos Mail News in 1927 and became its business manager.

Since then he had become a familiar figure here in town. Wearing the inevitable black hat, he suggested a prototype of the "Man on the Street," central figure of Baggerly's widely-read political column. Actually he served as a valuable news source for the column.

Although he had been in poor health, Forde kept up his work until a few days before death signed "30" to his career.

S.F. Tragedy Figure Dies In Los Gatos

LOS GATOS, Feb. 19.—Mrs. Mary A. McDevitt, 82, severely beaten two years ago when her son-in-law, Dr. Bernard A. Cody, San Francisco genito-urinary specialist, ran amok, died yesterday here in the home of a daughter.

Dr. Cody, wielding a lead pipe, killed his wife, Grace, attacked Mrs. McDevitt, and then fatally injured himself by deliberately driving his car into Fort Mason retaining wall.

Reasons for the attacks were never learned but police theorized after investigation that the physician had feared he was losing his mind.

Mrs. McDevitt, who never fully recovered from her injuries, died in the home of Mrs. Loyola Moodey on Lexington Drive. She had lived with her daughter for the last five months and was a life-long resident of California.

Funeral services will be held Monday under direction of Melvin Mortuary with rites in St. Mary's Catholic Church at 8 a.m. Interment will follow in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma.

McDEVITT—In Los Gatos, Feb. 18, Mary, beloved wife of the late William S. McDevitt, loving mother of Loyola Moodey and the late Grace C. Cody.

Private services Monday, Feb. 20, in Los Gatos. Melvin Chapel service, Los Gatos.

Margaret Anderson, Western Pioneer, Passes Away Here

After three years in Walla Walla, Washington, the family returned by a small covered wagon to San Jose, where they lived in Old College Park and among the many willows of Willow Glen.

For a short time the family lived in Linden, near Stockton, but returned to San Jose, where Mr. and Mrs. Anderson were married at the First Methodist church in 1885. They raised a large family which has been identified with the many activities of this valley.

Services Held Here for Mrs. Hostetter

Friends of one of Los Gatos' longtime residents paid last respects to Mrs. May E. W. Hostetter today at 2 p.m. funeral services.

The Reverend Stanley Clapham read the service from St. Luke's Episcopal church.

A native of Portland, Ore., Mrs. Hostetter was 85 year of age when she passed away Friday night. She had been staying with her daughter, Mrs. Martin L. LeFevre, 55 Fairview avenue. She and her late husband, Major Henry S. Hostetter, had lived at 68 Ellenwood avenue. The couple came to Los Gatos after the first World War when Major Hostetter retired.

She was a member of St. Luke's Episcopal church.

Her husband took an active part in the planting of trees that today line the sides of North Santa Cruz avenue north of Saratoga avenue. The work was started in the early 1930's when Major Hostetter was president of the Los Gatos Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Hostetter leaves two daughters, Mrs. Martin LeFevre and Mrs. Arch H. Bell; two grandchildren, Martin Henry and Douglas F. LeFevre, all of Los Gatos.

Stanley Hardy, Inventor, Passes Here

Funeral services for John Stanley Hardy, noted mechanical designer and engineer, will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. from Melvin Mortuary with cremation to follow at Oak Hill Memorial Park. The Rev. David Todd Gillmor will officiate. Mr. Hardy passed away at a local rest home Saturday after a lingering illness.

A native of London and resident of Los Gatos for the past 16 years, Mr. Hardy was, most recently, the inventor of an automatic tray lift used in canneries. His technical advances are known in this country and England.

The scale models in his study at 320 Bella Vista avenue held immense fascination for his visiting grandchildren.

He was with Food Machinery company, San Jose, and Woolridge Manufacturing company, Sunnyvale.

Mr. Hardy is survived by his widow, Charlotte N. Hardy; a son, Stanley Clive Hardy, of Idaho Falls, Idaho; a sister, Mrs. A. M. Bignaux, of Broadstair, England; and three grandchildren.

d Today Roberts

Services were conducted at the Los Gatos Presbyterian church today at 1 p.m. for Herbert L. Roberts, 54, native Los Gatos resident and manager of the local real estate firm of McMurtry and Bell.

Mr. Roberts, long active in community affairs, was stricken suddenly with a heart attack Friday evening while contributing his services as chairman of the Los Gatos Disaster Council organized in cooperation with the Red Cross. He was presiding over a meeting of the council in Legion Memorial building when the attack came. Prompt action on the part of resusitator crew from the Los Gatos Fire Department was in vain.

Subsequent to the late Judge A. H. Bell's death, Mr. Roberts assumed active managership of McMurtry & Bell following his resignation from the First National Bank of Los Gatos. More recently he participated in the ownership of the realty firm with Mrs. Marion Bell.

A lifetime resident of Los Gatos, he was a graduate of local schools. He was associated with the First National Bank for 36 years with the exception of eight months of service in the United States Navy during World War I.

Mr. Roberts entered the bank as general clerk and bookkeeper 1913 and served successively as assistant cashier and cashier. At the time of his resignation in January he held the offices of vice-president, cashier, and secretary.

He has long been active in singing organizations including the Richards club of San Jose. In addition, he was a member of the Los Gatos Rotary club, and the Los Gatos American Legion post.

He was the husband of Mrs. Ruth Roberts of Los Gatos; father of Mrs. Janet Fisher of Los Gatos, and Mrs. Rosemary Baum of Minneapolis, Minn.; brother of Mrs. F. M. Curtis of Los Gatos, Edwin M. Roberts of Hollister, and Clarence E. Roberts of Seattle. He is also survived by four grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Dr. E. F. Colvin, Charles Gamble, Martin LeFevre, Col. A. E. Merrill, H. E. Crall, Raymond Fisher, and Edyard Yocco. The Rev. Everett Thomson, former Los Gatos pastor now at Palo Alto, officiated at the services. A quartet from the Richards club of which Mr. Roberts was a member for 20 years, sang two selections accompanied by Dr. Charles M. Richards at the organ.

Cremation followed with inurnment at Oak Hill Memorial park.

Edward Balmer. Friend of Dogs, Passes After Short Illness

A familiar Los Gatos figure, who was seldom seen without one of the many dogs which accompanied him through life, passed away Friday morning after an illness of 30 days.

He is Edward Balmer, 71, janitor for many Los Gatos business firms during his 29 years as a citizen of this community. Funeral services will be Wednesday at 10 a.m. from the Melvin Funeral Parlor.

Mr. Balmer died at his home, 149 W. Main street. He served two hitches in the United States Army, in the Cavalry and Field Artillery from 1904 to 1907 and from 1908 to 1909. He came to California in 1903.

One of Mr. Balmer's closest friendships with a dog stemmed from a tragic accident. A fellow Los Gatan gave him a collie pup which became his constant companion.

One evening this pet wandered from its master and fell in a private swimming pool. The dog was in the water most of the night and when it's owner discovered it, the young animal had worn its paws to bleeding trying to claw itself out of the pool.

It was weeks before the animal could walk again. Mr. Balmer has had other dogs since but most Los Gatans will remember him with the gallant collie that fought to live and later accompany his master to the door-ways of various business houses.

His animals were well mannered but their size and quiet natures did not attract the play of children. All of them adopted the routine of their predecessors, following their master about the streets and waiting out-side.

Services were conducted at the Los Gatos Presbyterian church today at 1 p.m. for Herbert L. Roberts, 54, native Los Gatos resident and manager of the local real estate firm of McMurtry and Bell.

Mr. Roberts, long active in community affairs, was stricken suddenly with a heart attack Friday evening while contributing his services as chairman of the Los Gatos Disaster Council organized in cooperation with the Red Cross. He was presiding over a meeting of the council in Legion Memorial building when the attack came. Prompt action on the part of resusitator crew from the Los Gatos Fire Department was in vain.

Subsequent to the late Judge A. H. Bell's death, Mr. Roberts assumed active managership of McMurtry & Bell following his resignation from the First National Bank of Los Gatos. More recently he participated in the ownership of the realty firm with Mrs. Marion Bell.

A lifetime resident of Los Gatos, he was a graduate of local schools. He was associated with the First National Bank for 36 years with the exception of eight months of service in the United States Navy during World War I.

Mr. Roberts entered the bank as general clerk and bookkeeper 1913 and served successively as assistant cashier and cashier. At the time of his resignation in January he held the offices of vice-president, cashier, and secretary.

He has long been active in singing organizations including the Richards club of San Jose. In addition, he was a member of the Los Gatos Rotary club, and the Los Gatos American Legion post.

He was the husband of Mrs. Ruth Roberts of Los Gatos; father of Mrs. Janet Fisher of Los Gatos, and Mrs. Rosemary Baum of Minneapolis, Minn.; brother of Mrs. F. M. Curtis of Los Gatos, Edwin M. Roberts of Hollister, and Clarence E. Roberts of Seattle. He is also survived by four grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Dr. E. F. Colvin, Charles Gamble, Martin LeFevre, Col. A. E. Merrill, H. E. Crall, Raymond Fisher, and Edyard Yocco. The Rev. Everett Thomson, former Los Gatos pastor now at Palo Alto, officiated at the services. A quartet from the Richards club of which Mr. Roberts was a member for 20 years, sang two selections accompanied by Dr. Charles M. Richards at the organ.

Cremation followed with inurnment at Oak Hill Memorial park.

ROBERTS—In Los Gatos, June 30, 1950, Herbert L. Curtis of Los Gatos, Edwin M. Roberts of Hollister, Clarence E. Roberts of Seattle, Wash. Also survived by four grandchildren. A native of Los Gatos. Aged 54 years. A member of the Richardson Club of San Jose, the Los Gatos Rotary Club and the American Legion, Post 158, Los Gatos.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral services, Monday, July 3, 1950, at 1:00 o'clock in the Los Gatos Presbyterian Church. Cremation to follow. Friends may call at the Melvin Mortuary, 300 West Main St., Los Gatos, where he will lie in state until 12:00 Noon, Monday.

rd Balmer. Friend of Dogs, es After Short Illness

A familiar Los Gatos figure, who was seldom seen without one of the many dogs which accompanied him through life, passed away Friday morning after an illness of 30 days.

He is Edward Balmer, 71, janitor for many Los Gatos business firms during his 29 years as a citizen of this community. Funeral services will be Wednesday at 10 a.m. from the Melvin Funeral Parlor.

Mr. Balmer died at his home, 149 W. Main street. He served two hitches in the United States Army, in the Cavalry and Field Artillery from 1904 to 1907 and from 1908 to 1909. He came to California in 1903.

One of Mr. Balmer's closest friendships with a dog stemmed from a tragic accident. A fellow Los Gatan gave him a collie pup which became his constant companion.

One evening this pet wandered from its master and fell in a private swimming pool. The dog was in the water most of the night and when it's owner discovered it, the young animal had worn its paws to bleeding trying to claw itself out of the pool.

It was weeks before the animal could walk again. Mr. Balmer has had other dogs since but most Los Gatans will remember him with the gallant collie that fought to live and later accompany his master to the door-ways of various business houses.

His animals were well mannered but their size and quiet natures did not attract the play of children. All of them adopted the routine of their predecessors, following their master about the streets and waiting out-side.

d Today Roberts

Services were conducted at the Los Gatos Presbyterian church today at 1 p.m. for Herbert L. Roberts, 54, native Los Gatos resident and manager of the local real estate firm of McMurtry and Bell.

Mr. Roberts, long active in community affairs, was stricken suddenly with a heart attack Friday evening while contributing his services as chairman of the Los Gatos Disaster Council organized in cooperation with the Red Cross. He was presiding over a meeting of the council in Legion Memorial building when the attack came. Prompt action on the part of resusitator crew from the Los Gatos Fire Department was in vain.

Subsequent to the late Judge A. H. Bell's death, Mr. Roberts assumed active managership of McMurtry & Bell following his resignation from the First National Bank of Los Gatos. More recently he participated in the ownership of the realty firm with Mrs. Marion Bell.

A lifetime resident of Los Gatos, he was a graduate of local schools. He was associated with the First National Bank for 36 years with the exception of eight months of service in the United States Navy during World War I.

Mr. Roberts entered the bank as general clerk and bookkeeper 1913 and served successively as assistant cashier and cashier. At the time of his resignation in January he held the offices of vice-president, cashier, and secretary.

He has long been active in singing organizations including the Richards club of San Jose. In addition, he was a member of the Los Gatos Rotary club, and the Los Gatos American Legion post.

He was the husband of Mrs. Ruth Roberts of Los Gatos; father of Mrs. Janet Fisher of Los Gatos, and Mrs. Rosemary Baum of Minneapolis, Minn.; brother of Mrs. F. M. Curtis of Los Gatos, Edwin M. Roberts of Hollister, and Clarence E. Roberts of Seattle. He is also survived by four grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Dr. E. F. Colvin, Charles Gamble, Martin LeFevre, Col. A. E. Merrill, H. E. Crall, Raymond Fisher, and Edyard Yocco. The Rev. Everett Thomson, former Los Gatos pastor now at Palo Alto, officiated at the services. A quartet from the Richards club of which Mr. Roberts was a member for 20 years, sang two selections accompanied by Dr. Charles M. Richards at the organ.

Cremation followed with inurnment at Oak Hill Memorial park.

Old Hiway Scene of Fatal Crash

The old Los Gatos-Santa Cruz highway, made treacherous by yesterday's snow fall, was the scene of a fatal accident last night at 10:30.

Alfred Carl Blevins, 27, Los Gatos resident employed at Austrian dam, was killed when his car ran off the slippery road between Moody Gulch and Chemeketa Park. The car was found smashed against a redwood tree by a fellow worker.

Highway patrolmen called to the scene believe Blevins was killed instantly by the impact. The entire front of the car was smashed.

Blevins was pronounced dead upon arrival at the county hospital. Arrangements are being made at Melvin Mortuary to send the body to Porterville for funeral services. A native of Lone Wolf, Oklahoma, Blevins came to Los Gatos from Porterville several months ago. While working at the dam he resided at a local auto court.

He leaves his wife and four-year-old son of El Monte, and his parents and brothers of Porterville. Blevins was employed by Process Diamond Bit and Tool company as a driller on the Austrian dam. He was a Navy veteran of World War II.

Last Rites Held in L.G. For Owen W. Coldwell, 97

LOS GATOS, April 10.—Funeral services were held yesterday in Melvin Mortuary for Owen W. Coldwell, Los Gatos resident since 1903 who died last Friday. He had celebrated his 97th birthday last Jan. 20 with observances attended by town officials.

At the time of his birthday he was reading daily papers and getting around outside when weather permitted. Recently, however, he had broken his hip and aggravated a similar injury which occurred in 1940.

Native of Nova Scotia, he operated a livery stable here for many years with his cousin, C. W. Gertridge. He came to San Francisco in 1854.

His wife, the former Blanche Lawrence, died in 1944. In recent years he had been living with his sister, Mrs. Ida Davidson, of 22 Tait Ave. He is also survived by two nephews in Los Angeles.

The Rev. Robert B. Whittaker officiated. Interment was in Los Gatos Cemetery.

Services For J. Walter Crider To Be Held Tomorrow Morning

Death Calls Prominent L.G. Citizen

J. WALTER CRIDER

Funeral services for J. Walter Crider, prominent Los Gatos business man, civic leader and world traveler, will be conducted at Melvin Mortuary tomorrow at 10 a.m. Mr. Crider passed away early Sunday evening following a serious illness of 16 days that began with a heart attack. He was 60 years of age.

Crider's Department store on West Main street will remain closed all day tomorrow in memoriam to Mr. Crider, its founder.

A resident of Los Gatos for 40 years, Mr. Crider served the town as mayor for six years. He was a past president of the Los Gatos Chamber of Commerce and the Los Gatos Rotary club. He was president of the Los Gatos Telephone company at the time of his death. In addition, he served on the Bank of America's Advisory Board and held membership in the IOOF, Masonic Lodge and Presbyterian church.

He is survived by his widow, Lydia Belle Curtner Crider; two children, James W. Crider and Mrs. Frank D. (Lydia Belle) Baker; two grandchildren, Lydia Johan Baker, and Crider Frank Baker, all of Los Gatos. In addition, he leaves a brother, Chauncy Crider of Dallas, Oregon.

Born in Oregon

Mr. Crider was born in Dallas, Oregon. His parents moved to Portland, Oregon and later to Denver, Colorado. From Denver the family moved to Oakland, California and then to San Jose where, from 1900 to 1906, they operated the Enterprise Grocery. At the age of 17 the younger Mr. Crider purchased a San Jose confectionery store and later purchased a men's store in Healdsburg, California.

He moved to Los Gatos in 1910, purchasing the men's and shoe department from the Crosby Leask Co. Soon he purchased the other half of the store from the S.F. Board of Trade and established a department store. He acquired the Ford Opera House building in 1915 and remodeled it into the present Crider's Department store on West Main street. He operated the store in the day time and operated the theatre upstairs at night.

Widely Traveled

Mr. Crider became interested in importing and traveled in the Orient and throughout Europe building up an outstanding stock of imported goods at the local store.

In 1937 his son James was taken into the store and in 1939 his son-in-law Frank Baker was added to the partnership.

Following funeral services, interment will be at the Los Gatos cemetery. The Rev. Nottley Stever Hammack will officiate. Pallbearers will be Lyndon Farwell, Martin LeFevre, Marc Vertin, Paul Straub, Dr. E. F. Colvin and Paul Curtis. Honorary pallbearers will be Russell Sund, Fred Frederickson, Sanborn Young, James A. Case, Jack Sullivan, Sewall Brown, Fred Berryman Sr., Paul Rudolph, George Green, George Geoffroy, Arthur Viner, Henri Hill, Hans Nielsen, Charles Moore, George W. Baker.

L.G. Man Dies As Result Of Headon Crash

SANTA CRUZ, Aug. 6.—Adolph T. Ferini, 28, of Los Gatos, died in a Santa Cruz hospital this morning from injuries received Saturday in a headon collision which claimed the life of a Santa Cruz man and injured three others.

LaMar Cureton, 58-year-old realtor, was killed in the accident which occurred when two cars met in the center lane of a three-lane section of the Los Gatos Highway, just outside of Santa Cruz.

Ferini succumbed to internal injuries including head injuries and severe lacerations, Coroner Walter Bettencourt reported. He never regained consciousness after the accident.

Still in serious condition is Sam W. Coffee, 69, Santa Cruz real estate man, driver of the car in which Cureton was a passenger.

Delbert R. Elder, 24, of Los Gatos, only passenger in the car which Ferini was driving, is hospitalized here with a cerebral concussion, fractured thigh and head lacerations.

Gay Young, 59, also a Santa Cruz realtor, who was riding in the car with Coffee and Cureton, received less serious injuries. He is expected to be released from the hospital within the next few days.

The Santa Cruz trio was returning from Oregon where they had been on a business trip.

Funeral services for Cureton will be held Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. in White's Chapel. Burial will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery at San Bruno.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Chispa Cureton; a stepson, Wesley Gallagher, an Associated Press executive; three brothers, Dr. William H. Cureton of Santa Cruz; Paul Cureton of Vallejo and Dr. Horace Cureton of San Jose, and two nephews, West and Stewart Cureton of Santa Cruz.

Saratoga's Noted 'Bird Lady' Is Called by Death

Mrs. Bernardine Higinbotham died this morning after a lengthy illness. She had lived on Saratoga avenue, Saratoga, for 31 years, and was the widow of the late John U. Higinbotham.

Known as the "bird lady" for many years, Mrs. Higinbotham befriended birds and made her famous gardens a bird sanctuary.

In 1932 she acquired a pet quail, "Peeper" which received widespread publicity. The couple took the bird with them on trips throughout the United States. The feathered friend traveled 4000 miles by train and 13,721 by car, and newsmen along the way photographed and wrote many features on the traveling quail. When the bird died, they buried it in the garden with a carved headstone to mark the grave.

Surviving Mrs. Higinbotham are two nieces, Mrs. Francis Catling of St. Augustine, Fla., and Mrs. Nan E. Beripohl of Kansas City, Mo. She is the sister of the late Minnie Belle Wessels.

Services will be held Friday, 2 p. m., at Melvin Morturay. with Rev. G. King of Saratoga Federated church officiating. Cremation will be at Oak Hill Memorial Park and interment will follow at the family plot in Madronia cemetery, Saratoga.

Gen. Hutcheson Widow Dies In Saratoga

SARATOGA, Dec. 25. — Mrs. Anne P. Hutcheson, 72, widow of Maj. Gen. Grote Hutcheson, died unexpectedly last night at Saratoga Inn where she had lived for nine years.

Mrs. Hutcheson was found this morning dead on the floor of her bedroom in her house at the inn. She was fully clothed, even to the purse on her arm, and had apparently been preparing to go out for Christmas Eve. She was known to be suffering from a heart ailment.

Mrs. Hutcheson was born in Mississippi. Her home when she married General Hutcheson, a widower, in 1943, had been in Washington, D.C. Her only close relative was a niece, Mrs. John Redmond of Greenburg, Pa.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Melvin Mortuary.

General Hutcheson had been for 20 years one of Saratoga's most beloved and respected citizens when he died in December, 1949, at the age of 86.

He had been a West Point classmate of the late Gen. John J. Pershing and his military career, starting in the days when there was still Indian fighting in the West in the 1880's, extended through World War I.

He was retired shortly after the close of that war, following a final tour of duty in New York, and came to Saratoga to live in the late 1920's. He had been military aide to five U.S. presidents and was the holder of many decorations.

Gen. Hutcheson Widow Dies In Saratoga

SARATOGA, Dec. 25. — Mrs. Anne P. Hutcheson, 72, widow of Maj. Gen. Grote Hutcheson, died unexpectedly last night at Saratoga Inn where she had lived for nine years.

Mrs. Hutcheson was found this morning dead on the floor of her bedroom in her house at the inn. She was fully clothed, even to the purse on her arm, and had apparently been preparing to go out for Christmas Eve. She was known to be suffering from a heart ailment.

Mrs. Hutcheson was born in Mississippi. Her home when she married General Hutcheson, a widower, in 1943, had been in Washington, D.C. Her only close relative was a niece, Mrs. John Redmond of Greenburg, Pa.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Melvin Mortuary.

General Hutcheson had been for 20 years one of Saratoga's most beloved and respected citizens when he died in December, 1949, at the age of 86.

He had been a West Point classmate of the late Gen. John J. Pershing and his military career, starting in the days when there was still Indian fighting in the West in the 1880's, extended through World War I.

He was retired shortly after the close of that war, following a final tour of duty in New York, and came to Saratoga to live in the late 1920's. He had been military aide to five U.S. presidents and was the holder of many decorations.

Death Calls Mrs. May Sporleder, Member of Pioneer Area Family

Mrs. May Sporleder, member of the pioneer Los Gatos Bowdish family, passed away yesterday in a local rest home following a prolonged illness. Mrs. Sporleder, daughter of Meville Bowdish, came to Los Gatos from Santa Clara in the middle 1890's to live on her father's Greenwood road ranch.

Meville Bowdish was one of the early settlers of the area and his early holdings included a 160 acre tract off the Saratoga highway where Greenwood road now lies. Bowdish cleared land and planted one of the first orchards of the Santa Clara valley.

He also was engaged in raising horses, and his daughter became an expert horsewoman. The original Greenwood road ranch was purchased in 1870, but Bowdish and his family lived in Santa Clara until 1895, when he moved to the Los Gatos property.

May Bowdish married William Sporleder in 1921 upon his return from World War I. Much of her husband's early days were spent on the Greenwood ranch, where he worked for Bowdish and drove wagons into the early lumber camps in the Santa Cruz mountains.

Mrs. Sporleder is survived by her husband, who still resides on Greenwood road, and by a sister, Charity B. Belver of Agnew.

Last rites will be held Friday at 2 p. m. from Melvin Mortuary. The Rev. E. E. Knight of First Christian church will officiate. Cremation will follow at Oak Hill Memorial Park.

RECORD OF FUNERAL

Saratoga Tot Drowns in Fish Pond

A three-year-old Saratoga child was accidentally drowned yesterday afternoon in a fish pond at his home.

Victim of the tragedy was Orvale Lee Funderburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ovie O. Funderburg of the Pourrey ranch on Big Basin way.

The boy left a vineyard in which his family was working to go to the rear of the house for a drink, it was reported. No one saw him go to the front of the house where the fish pond is located. He was missed by the family a half hour later.

The body was found by Fay Hudson, an aunt of the child, who resides with the family. He was rushed to the office of a doctor in Saratoga where unsuccessful attempts were made for an hour to revive him.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Friday from the Melvin Mortuary in Los Gatos with the Rev. C. D. Hogue of Monte Vista officiating. Interment will be in Madronia cemetery, Saratoga.

Besides his parents, deceased is survived by a brother, George Allen; a sister, Evelyn Ruth; and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Funderburg, and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hudson.

Roy Fowler, 80, Hospitalized With Burns

Roy Fowler, 80, of 176 Villa avenue, was reported in poor condition today at Santa Clara county hospital.

The elderly man was taken to the hospital late Saturday night suffering from burns received when his bed caught fire. He had been ill for a number of months.

Firemen were called to the Fowler home at 11:15 p.m. after Mrs. Fowler discovered her husband's bed and a chair afire. He was taken to the hospital by Melvin ambulance.

Firemen surmised that the blaze started after the elderly man got out of bed to smoke. He was in bed when found.

Hospital attendants reported several areas on Mr. Fowler's thigh were burned, but that his poor condition was not due to the burns, which were described as minor.

FOWLER—Of Los Gatos, Calif., Oct. 29, 1952, Roy C. Fowler, loving husband of Clara D. Fowler. A native of Blandersville, Illinois; aged 80 years.

Funeral services were held Thursday at 7:30 o'clock at the Melvin Mortuary, 300 W. Main St., at Tait Ave., Los Gatos, under the auspices of Wheaton Camp No. 8, United Spanish-American War Veterans, followed by the recitation of the Rosary at 8 p.m. Requiem Low Mass will be celebrated for the repose of his soul today, Friday at 8:30 a.m. in the St. Mary's Church on Bean Ave. Interment, Golden Gate National Cemetery at 10:45 a.m. with full military honors.
